

From H.C.C to N.C.W.C!

Larrel Lewis, a student at Halifax Community College, is being spotlighted by TRIO Student Support Services for his outstanding success! He will be graduating and transferring to North Carolina Wesleyan College this upcoming Spring. He is very excited about the next step in his educational journey. Student Support Services sat down with Larrel to gain more insight into his educational journey thus far.

1) How has your journey from Halifax Community College led you to NC Wesleyan College?

“Halifax Community College has helped prepare me for NC Wesleyan College through the assistance of the faculty and staff who have contributed to my educational success. Halifax Community College has led me to become a better individual and more involved with the community.”

2) What are some of the things you look forward to while attending NC Wesleyan College?

“I am looking forward to transferring to a university, being on campus, and meeting and interacting with new students.”

3) What support did TRIO-Student Support Services render to you while attending Halifax Community College?

“Student Support Services has helped me with tutoring and multiple opportunities to help other students. I received good advisement and guidance from my advisor Mr. Hardy. I enjoyed the manly talks we would have. College is not easy and it was great to have the support that Student Support Services provides.”

4) What advantages did you find the most beneficial while attending Halifax Community College?

“Halifax Community College and Student Support Services have helped me become more financially literate. I also enjoyed being involved in different organizations. The staff actually cares about the students being successful.”

5) Would you recommend Halifax Community College Student Support Services to other students?

"I would most definitely recommend it to others. Having someone to talk to on campus and get advice from is very important for any student's success."

